

Jordan Williams Bio:

Jordan Williams is an experienced and versatile business bankruptcy and restructuring attorney. Licensed in Delaware and Pennsylvania, she represents a diverse range of parties including creditors, debtors, trustees, unsecured creditor committees, lessors, and asset purchasers in matters including: Chapter 7 and 11 cases; Bankruptcy alternatives including assignments for the benefit of creditors (“ABCs”), receiverships, liquidations, winddowns, and UCC (Article 9) foreclosures; Bankruptcy litigation including preference and fraudulent transfer claims; Chapter 15 and related international insolvency matters; Restructuring and out-of-court workouts; and Asset sales.

Prior to and during law school, Jordan served as a law clerk and paralegal at a Philadelphia-based law firm specializing in chapter 13 and chapter 7 bankruptcy matters.

During law school, Jordan served as a legal intern focusing on corporate restructuring at a law firm based in Philadelphia, and also served as an Equal Justice Works Veteran Legal Corps summer fellow, in which she assisted veterans and military personnel in financial crisis by applying for service-connected benefits, appealing discharge upgrades, and preparing chapter 7 no-asset bankruptcies.

Jordan currently serves on the steering committee of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania Bankruptcy Conference, where she also holds the current position of Commercial Education Chair.
