

Phil Patman, Jr.
Huron

Over 25 years of experience in the energy industry, including roles in finance, business, and law. Currently providing Energy Restructuring and Turnaround business advisory services for Huron Consulting Group, he previously served as CFO of VAALCO Energy Inc. (NYSE:EGY) from 2017 to 2019. During that time period, VAALCO experienced a 133% increase in its stock price, obtained a 10-year extension of its primary hydrocarbons concession, and successfully addressed several accounting and controls matters. Previously, served as SVP of Business Development, The Americas, for Thailand's National Oil Company PTTEP, where he restructured the company's oil sands business and pursued numerous prospects to enter the US market. Worked in progressively senior roles for AES Corporation, Franklin Templeton Investments, Globeleq, Marathon Oil Company, and Enron Corp., and practiced energy law early in his career.
